Extremely quiet general-purpose single disc machine for professional wet or dry cleaning of floors.

The Tennant 2120 is a multi-purpose floor machine, very comfortable to use and suitable for a variety of cleaning tasks on stone floors and ceramic coverings, tiles, PVC and linoleum and carpet textiles. Effortlessly removes all kinds of dirt and completely restores damage to coatings such as burns, rubber marks and firmly ingrained stains.

Using brushes or pads, and the recommended accessories, the versatile 2120 is ideal for:

- Cleaning almost any floor
- Applying a deep gloss on coated hard floor surfaces
- Removing polish
- Intensive cleaning of industrial flooring

- Exceptionally quiet: at 56 dB(A) there is no quieter machine on the market
- Ergonomically designed and comfortable to use handle
- Safety lock: no operation possible in upright position
- Double safety switch: to prevent accidental starts in any position
- Low profile of housing with off-centre motor: optimal balance and easy access under desks and radiators
- Large transport wheels: easy transport over thresholds and stairs
- Centre brush feed: optimal cleaning results and economical use of cleaning fluid
- Easy-to-service: quick exchange of power cable, motor and transmission
